In continuation of my letter dated the 14th May 1913, I am directed to state that M. Rama Row, Harikar on the Establishment, has prayed in his application dated the 31st May 1913, for a further extension of the privilege - leave by one month. He says that he is entitled to this leave. The extension now asked for or such as he may be entitled to, has been granted.

2. On the 2nd July 1913 (on which date, it is believed, this extension will expire) or earlier, M. Rama Row will revert to his permanent place of Mutchi in the District Treasury at Bangalore, and report himself for duty at that office.

3. The present substitute, K. Parthasarathi Iyengar will continue to be substitute during this extension of -- leave.
